MSE – Invitation to... Entrepreneurship & Networking Event

A Master's degree is the perfect time to build deep technical expertise and discover how to apply it in the real world. This is exactly where our entrepreneurship opportunities come in. Your MSE opens up new avenues to think outside the box and turn your own ideas into reality. The various offers and programs at BFH support you on the way. Seize the freedom of your studies to explore new opportunities and lay the foundation for your own innovative project.
