

Bern University of Applied Sciences

New start

Welcome to Bern University of Applied Sciences BFH

The Welcome Center provides information and advice about life in Switzerland for staff who have moved here from abroad.

Partner:

Welcome Center

We warmly welcome you to Bern University of Applied Sciences BFH and your new surroundings. The Welcome Center is an information and advisory service for newly arrived staff who have questions about life in Switzerland, in Bern and at BFH. Our aim is to make your new start as smooth as possible and provide you with the information necessary to achieve this.

We offer information to ...

... anyone who has recently moved from abroad and who has just started or is about to start working at BFH.

Website

You can find comprehensive information on the website (www.bfh.ch/welcome-center) about the following topics:

- relocating
- accommodation
- insurance
- family
- languages
- the region of Bern

Face-to-face contact

Come by and pick up your free welcome pack containing information about BFH, the region of Bern and Switzerland. You can also talk to us about any further concerns you may have.

E-mail

If you have follow-on questions, you can put them to us electronically at international@bfh.ch. Please include the following details in your e-mail:

- title (Mr/Ms/Miss/Mrs)
- full name
- e-mail address
- nationality
- last place (country) of residence
- date of commencement and length of employment at BFH
- name of BFH department in which you are employed
- your question/comment

EURAXESS

The BFH Welcome Center is a member of EURAXESS – a European network of service centers for internationally mobile researchers: www.euraxess.ch.