Study in Switzerland
Welcome

Grüessech – Bonjour – Buongiorno – Bun Di

Experience this culturally diverse country while studying at Bern University of Applied Sciences (BFH); a practice-oriented learning environment committed to academic excellence with a strong focus on real-world practice in all courses. Learn, have fun and be part of a community!

What makes your exchange at BFH Business School awesome!

Welcome Week

Our Welcome Week is a great opportunity to learn more about university life and Switzerland. Socialise with other students and BFH staff members, before your studies begin. This is a perfect way to start your exchange experience!

International Family Mentor Programme

You will be allocated to a Buddy family, which connects our students with you and fellow international students. You will be provided support in discovering life at the BFH and in Bern, making for an excellent exchange experience. Forge new friendships as you discover the real Switzerland through the eyes of a local.

Intensive Personal Support

You will find a low students-lecturer ratio which leads to open and frequent communication with professors and International Office staff.

Free language courses

Exchange students are eligible to receive 2 ECTS credits for our German for Beginners course.

Events

You have the possibility to attend a whole host of events organized by the International Office, UELI (Students association) and ESN (European Student Network).

Outstanding Sports Facilities

You will find outstanding university sport facilities for a very reasonable membership fee.

Lectures commence in calendar week 38 in the autumn semester and in calendar week 8 in the spring semester.

During the 14 week lecture period you will be expected to attend face-to-face lessons. In addition you are required to do individual and guided self-study (including exam preparation) during the semester. Certain modules may take place in the block weeks.

Please note:
* The repeat date for the examinations in the autumn semester is in the week commencing Easter Monday. The block week in the spring semester is always held in the week before Easter. These weeks move accordingly each calendar year.

Lesson-free days:
- Easter (Friday to Monday)
- Ascension (Thursday to Saturday)
- Whitsun (Monday)
About Switzerland

Living in Bern

It’s an excellent place to live, study, and work. With our cultural diversity, beautiful landscapes, and innovative environment, an ideal surrounding is offered for both personal wellbeing and career advancement.

Accommodation

We do not have onsite accommodation facilities. Even though you are responsible for your own housing needs, we recommend staying in the student lodging (vbsl.ch), where the we hold a few places reserved for international students (first come, first served).

Cost of Living

We recommend a monthly budget (including food, accommodation, transport and entertainment etc.) in the region of CHF 1540-2320, see breakdown below.

How to find us
The campus can be reached on foot from Bern train station in just 10 minutes. From Bundeshaus-West, the Marzili funicular railway travels down into the Marzili neighbourhood located on the river Aare. The Business School is located 450 meters westwards from the station at the bottom of the line.

Directions by car
Take motorway exit 12 Bern-Ostring and travel towards Zentrum. On Freudenbergerplatz, turn right on to Ostring. At the roundabout, take the second exit on to Thunstrasse. At Thunplatz (roundabout), take the second exit on to Jungfraustrasse. At the end of Jungfraustrasse, take a left on to Marienstrasse. Take the right turn on to Schwellenmattstrasse. Travel over the Dalmazibrücke bridge, take the fourth exit on the roundabout on to Aarstrasse, make a right turn on to Brückenstrasse. We regret that no parking spaces can be provided for students.
